

All Essay Types

- Illustrate your writing, and create a multiple-page book.
- Upload your essay to a student writing website.
- Create a digital slideshow to turn your writing into a presentation.
- Make a video or audio recording of your reading your essay. Share the recording with friends and family.
- Email copies of your essay to family members.
- Submit your writing to a school newspaper or magazine.
- Submit your work to a student writing contest.
- Create a poster that highlights your topic and supporting ideas.
- Post your writing on a school or personal blog.

Narrative

- Adapt your narrative into a play. Invite volunteers to perform the play for a group.
- Use your narrative to create a comic strip.

Informative & Research

- Create an infographic or poster that visually represents your ideas.

Argument

- Submit your argument essay to a local newspaper.
- Submit your argument essay to an organization that supports your views.
- Stage a debate with a friend or family member who holds an opposing view.