Stadium Blast!

Today they started 1 on the new baseball stadium. I've been to the old arena many times. The idea of building an entirely new one boggled my 2. How would they do it? I found some 3 online. The designs for the new stadium are very 4. There will be a giant dolphin-shaped scoreboard past the outfield fence. There will be brand-new, fancy dugouts. The only 5 will be the field! My dad told me that they were going to start by demolishing the old structure. They were actually going to set off an 6! Dad said that people had 7 to watch from a safe distance. He asked if I wanted to go. Naturally, I replied with a 8 YES! Even though we were across the street, the blast was deafening. The buildings around us shook. The stadium came crashing down. One thing I can say with 9—it was an 10!
